

Finance Department Business Plan

The Finance Department is not required to produce a separate Business Plan because all employees and departments of the JA company participate in determining the product price and break-even point, or the Product Evaluation, during Meeting Four.

The Product Evaluation Form must be included in the overall company Business Plan. The Finance Department must complete and attach the Product Evaluation Form to the company Business Plan prior to Meeting Five.